WOUNDED BANDIT WAS PRISONER IN DEKALB CO. JAIL YEARS AGO

Served Term for Burglary Under Name of "Chas. Hall," Smith Says.

(Special to The Telegraph.)

Rochelle, Ill., Sept. 29.—The automobile bandit who, after he was probably fatally shot by Officer Robbins of the Rochelle police department Saturday morning gave the name of Howard Ross, has been identified as having served a sentence for burglary in the DeKalb county jail at Sycamore three or four years ago.

The identification was made Tuesday afternoon by State's Attorney Lowell B. Smith, of DeKalb, who came to Rochelle to give the wounded prisoner "the once over." He positively identified the young fellow as a man who had "done time" in the Sycamore jail under the name of Charles Hall.

Used Other Names.

That Ross or Hall, was a "bad man" is the belief of all the authorities and that he had used other aliases is also probable, for a receipt from an express company found in his pocket was made out to Ross Hall.

Savanna authorities who went to Sycamore yesterday identified Sims, the negro, as the colored fellow who had been seen in that city last week with a Ford coupe loaded with suspected stolen goods; but aside from these two identifications the local authorities have discovered nothing new concerning the wounded man.

Ross was apparently no nearer death today than yesterday; but with a part of his spinal cord shot away the attending surgeons can see little hope for his recovery—and even should he survive it is entirely probable the lower part of the body would be completely paralyzed.

Notwithstanding the seriousness of his condition the prisoner has added nothing to the bare announcement of his name, given the officers Sunday, despite their continued questioning.

Cox Has But Three Addresses Today

By Associated Press Leased Wire.

En Route With Governor Cox, Omaha, Neb., Sept. 29.—After yesterday's tour of South Dakota, where he gave the first pronouncement of his attitude toward the Volstead prohibition enforcement act, Governor Cox of Ohio, today traveled to Missouri and Kansas, where the prohibition question has been one of the vital issues for many years.

Compared with yesterday's schedule of 15 speeches, only three addresses were on today's program. The first, at St. Joseph, Mo., in the early afternoon was to be followed by one at Atchison, Kas., in the late afternoon and at Topeka, the state capital in the evening.

In a statement which was expected to form the basis of his Missouri and Kansas speeches today Governor Cox said in part:

"The reason Senator Harding has no definite plan to offer in substitution for the League of Nations is because he does not dare suggest to the mothers of America, the only alternative here is, namely, a return to international 'normalcy' of 1914 with autocratic monarchs and sudden ultimatums and secret diplomacy and burdensome armaments."

INCREASED GAS RATES IN DIXON ASKED BY I. N. U.

40 Cents More Per One Thousand Feet is Petitioned.

The Illinois Northern Utilities Co. has filed an application with the Illinois Public Utilities Commission for permission to increase its gas rates in Dixon 40 cents per thousand cubic feet, and in compliance with the law has published notice of its application in this evening's issue of the Telegraph. The company requests that permission be granted to put the new rates into effect on Nov. 1.

The proposed rates would make the minimum charge for gas service $1 per month instead of 50 cents, would make local rates $2.10 per thousand feet instead of $1.70 for consumption up to 3000 feet, and would graduate the other rates down to $1.45 per thousand for the consumers of the largest amounts.

The petition has just been filed with the state commission and so no date for a hearing has been set. The city officials will be notified of the application and will be given an opportunity to contest any raise, if they see fit.

THREE AUTOS IN CRASH ON LORD'S HILL THIS NOON

Machines Badly Damaged—No One Was Injured.

Three automobiles were seriously damaged in a collision at the foot of Lord's hill on the Lincoln Highway just before the noon hour today. John Simantle, of Sterling, retired farmer, was returning home with some friends in his new Oldsmobile and was following an Olympic sedan, owned and driven by Mrs. M. L. Whitehead of this city.

Mr. Simantle attempted to pass the Olympic car, following another big car and when about alongside of Mrs. Whitehead's car, W. B. Baum, was coming to Dixon in his Buick. The Sterling man saw at once that a collision could not be averted and endeavored to pass Mrs. Whitehead's car. According to his statement he was going at a speed of about 15 miles an hour when the cars came together. The Whitehead car was struck in the side, bending the body and tearing the running board and one rear fender loose.

Mr. Baum's Buick was the worst damaged and had to be towed to the Miller garage, the engine and front of the machine being wrecked and the frame badly sprung. The Sterling car is also badly damaged and will doubtless have to be sent to the factory to be repaired. The front axle, body and frame were badly sprung and one fender demolished.

That none of the occupants of either of the three cars were seriously injured is nothing short of miraculous. Mrs. Whitehead suffered a bruised elbow and was highly nervous following the accident. One of the occupants of Mr. Simantle's machine was thrown against the top and suffered a bruised head, otherwise none were injured. The Simantle car was towed to a Sterling garage late this afternoon.

SOLID SOUTH CONTROL OF CONGRESS OBJECT OF REPUBLICAN FIGHT

Success of Democrats May Bring Return of Old Conditions.

(Special Correspondence.)

Washington, D. C., Sept. 29.—Will the next House of Representatives be as strongly republican as the present House, where the republican majority is forty-six votes? This question is now agitating the democratic campaign managers, who are striving in every state to elect men of their political belief to the next House. The republican managers are viewing the situation without alarm for they believe it is hardly possible for the democrats to overcome the present big republican House majority. As the republicans are confidently expecting a Harding and Coolidge landslide in November they feel sure the democrats will not be able to capture the next House and they expect to largely increase their present majority.

The present membership of the House includes 264 republicans, 190 democrats, 2 independent republicans, 1 independent, 1 prohibitionist, and there are seven vacancies—total 435.

It now seems probable to all impartial political observers here, that the Cox-Roosevelt ticket will secure few electoral votes outside of the sixteen southern states, and if this happens the republican House majority may run over one hundred.

It cannot be denied by any of the blindest partisans that the Sixty-fifth Congress, which had a democratic majority in House and Senate, and which was absolutely dominated by Senators and Representatives from the southern states, discriminated against the Northern, Mid-Western and Western states. That Congress collected the bulk of the revenue needed to carry on the war against Germany from the three other sections of the country, but spent most of it in the "Solid South." Most of the great government war work plants, army camps and aviation fields were established in the South—largely paid for with taxes collected from the remainder of the country.

The minority South not only dominated Congress, through the caucus system, but it collected immense sums from the other sections of the country and spent most of the money in the South.

One example of other discrimination practiced by the "Southern Ring" then in control of Congress will suffice. That Congress fixed a government price on wheat. It refused to fix a price on cotton—purely a Southern product.

While the Northern, Mid-Western States supplied most of the soldiers that were needed to win the war with Germany, and also supplied the greater part of the revenue collected to pay the war expenses, the sixteen Southern states, dominating Congress, secured most of the money spent in this country during the war.

When the elections came for the Sixty-sixth Congress the people of the country, excepting those in the South, having been informed of these unjust and discriminatory conditions, elected a republican House majority of forty-six and a Senate majority of two.

If a democratic Congress should be elected in November these conditions of the war expenses, the sixteen Southern states, dominating Congress, secured most of the money spent in this country during the war.

ONE-MAN POWER MUST GO, SAYS SEN. HARDING

Candidate Promises Return to Co-ordinate Regime.

By Associated Press Leased Wire.

Ashland, Ky., Sept. 29.—A federal government conducted under the coordinated powers of the constitution and always taking the whole American people into its confidence was pictured by Senator Harding here today as the ideal toward his party would work if returned to power. Assailing "one-man government" the Republican nominee also spoke for greater care that federal appropriations be made for the good of the whole nation rather than to win local favor.

"I cannot express myself too strongly against one-man government with an untrammelled, centralized power," said the senator.

"I did not criticize the enlarged executive powers in the great war emergency. In most instances I voted for them, when congress bestowed. I only object to continuing these extraordinary powers after the war was won. When I am elected there is going to be that regard and respect for congress which the constitution contemplates, and congress must, in turn, respect the rights and obligations of the executive. But I mean to do more than co-ordinate and co-operate with congress. I am going to consult and converse with the men and women of America. It would rather trust the great undercurrent of American thought and conviction than follow the greatest propagandist program ever inaugurated."

"Transportation is the very key to all our industrial, agricultural and commercial activities. We are doing bigger things than of old and we do them in a bigger way. But nothing ought wholly to supersede the water highway."

FIRST GRIDIRON GAME OF SEASON HERE NEXT SATURDAY VS. DEKALB

Dixon High Team Handicapped By Lack of Practice Field.

The Dixon high school football team will open its schedule here Saturday afternoon when it will meet DeKalb high school eleven in the first game of the season. DeKalb has practically the same team as last year while the local eleven is composed principally of new material. The Dixon team has been seriously handicapped this season in many respects but are offering no excuses and will depend entirely on their speed and open style of play in their opening game.

Inability to secure a field where the team could practice as well as stage their games, has seriously hampered the team. Many of the members of last year's team will not appear this year, being ineligible to play. In the back field the lineup is practically the same as last year with the exception of Haley replacing Heinz. Annis and Tove are the only two last season men in the line, but other very promising material is available.

The schedule this year calls for only seven games, two less than were slated last season. The schedule as announced by Coach Vazina this morning contains the following list of games and the dates:

- Oct. 2—DeKalb at Dixon.
 - Oct. 9—Clinton at Clinton.
 - Oct. 16—St. Albans at Sycamore.
 - Oct. 23—Sterling at Dixon.
 - Oct. 30—No game scheduled.
 - Nov. 6—Sycamore at Dixon.
 - Nov. 13—Mendota at Dixon.
 - Nov. 20—Dixon at Sterling.
- All games played at home will be staged at Brown's field, arrangements being completed for the park a few days ago.

EXTENDED EVERYWHERE PROFESSIONAL BALL IS KNOWN SAYS JUROR

More Indictments Sure in Chicago Jury's Investigation.

By Associated Press Leased Wire.

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Identity of alleged go-betweens and gamblers who bribed White Sox players was revealed in a confession made to the grand jury today by Claude "Lefty" Williams, who joined Cicotte and Jackson in making a clean breast of the 1919 world's series frame-up.

Williams named Chick Gandil, former White Sox player against whom a true bill was returned yesterday, as chief go-between on the team, and "a Brown and Sullivan, gamblers" from either New York or Boston as go-betweens for the gamblers.

Gamblers Indicted.

The jury voted true bills for Brown and Sullivan.

Williams said he was supposed to get $20,000 and Jackson the same, but that he received only $10,000, half of which he gave Jackson. He said Gandil told him that Bill Burns, veteran pitcher, and Abe Attel, former prize fighter, were fixing it for the Sox players to get $100,000.

Before going before the grand jury Williams made the following sworn statement to Alfred Austrian, attorney for the White Sox:

"This situation was first brought up to me in New York, Mr. Gandil called me to one side, out in front of the Hotel Ansania and asked me if anybody had approached me about the world's series; and I said, 'that what do you mean?' He says that the series be fixed; if they were fixed what would you do about it? Would you take an active part or what? I say 'I am in no position to say right now.' I say, 'I will give you my answer later, after thinking it over.'"

"After coming back to Chicago I was called down to the Warner hotel, where I saw Eddie Cicotte, Chick Gandil, Buck Weaver and Happy Felsch and two fellows introduced as Brown and Sullivan."

"What names were those?"

"Brown and Sullivan, supposed to be the gamblers or fellows that were fixing it for the gamblers, one of the two, they didn't say which. They said they were from New York, they introduced them as Brown and Sullivan from New York. They wanted us to throw the series to Cincinnati for $5,000."

"Apiece?"

"Apiece, yes. And I said that wasn't enough money to fool with and I was informed that whether or not I took any action the games would be fixed."

"Who informed you of that?"

"Chick Gandil. So I told them anything they did would be agreeable with me; if it were going to be done anyway, that I had no money and I might as well get what I could."

"I haven't seen those gamblers from that day to this. Gandil told me that we were supposed to get—"

"What was it?"

"Figured 'Double Cross.'"

"I was supposed to get $10,000 after the second game when we got back to Chicago, and I didn't get this until after the fourth game, and he then said that the gamblers had called it off; and I figured that there was a double cross some place. On the second trip to Cincinnati Cicotte and I had a conference. I told him that we were double crossed and that I was going to win if there was any possible chance. Cicotte said he was the same way. Gandil informed me in Cincinnati that Bill Burns and Abe Attel were fixing it so that we could get $100,000 making $20,000 more that I never received."

"You had a meeting with the Cincinnati ball players, who was that?"

"That was in the hotel in Chick Gandil's room."

"Who was there?"

"We never had a meeting. We just went up there; we just dropped in one at a time. There was Buck Weaver, Eddie Cicotte, Chick Gandil, Happy Felsch and myself."

Weaver Was Present.

"Was Weaver in there?"

"Yes. We asked Gandil when we were going to get the $100,000 that Burns and Attel were supposed to."

Williams declared he personally paid the $5,000 to Jackson, his testimony being at various such previous reports that Jackson testified he found the money on his bed.

Williams, before making his statement signed a waiver of immunity.

Assistant State's Attorney Hartley Repogle stated that another of the White Sox players was expected at the criminal court building this afternoon to make a statement. The announcement was believed to refer to McMullin, who was said to have made a statement to Attorney Austrian.

True bills naming ball players not members of the White Sox and three gamblers are expected to be voted today by the grand jury. Members of the jury said this morning they had sufficient evidence on which to base indictments.

It was reported that true bills against two National league players are being considered.

King Is Extensive.

The eight players indicted are "apparently only tools of a gambling ring," according to Harry Brigham, foreman of the grand jury. The ramifications of this ring, he said, extend everywhere that professional baseball is known.

May Get Gamblers.

Today's Market Report

(By Associated Press Leased Wire.)

Grain Prices Show Strength in Trades

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Moderate buying for the seaboard sufficed to give an upturn to the wheat market today after an easy opening. The rally was helped by strength which developed in coarse grain. First prices, unchanged to 1c lower, with Dec. 2.22 1/2 to 2.23 and March 2.16, were followed by a decided gain all around.

Frost in the west and northwest last night together with predictions that the frost area would extend eastward to Chicago tonight brought about a substantial advance in the corn market. After opening 1/4c off to 1/4c higher, with Dec. at 85 1/2c to 86c and March 84c to 85c, a slight sag took place, but then prices went sharply up.

Oats paralleled the action of corn, starting 1/4c to 1/2c higher. Dec. 58 1/2c to 59c and March 57 1/2c to 58c. The market was weak in the hog market, with a depressing effect on provisions.

Longs freely supplied the needs of September shorts. Corn prices closed firm, 1/4c to 1/2c net higher with Dec. 85 1/2c to 86c.

Gossip of a probable scarcity of wheat at domestic milling points between now and next June tended somewhat to stimulate demand. The close was strong, 1 1/4c to 1 1/2c net higher with Dec. 2.24 1/2 to 2.25 1/2 and March 2.20.

NUMBER OF FULL BLOODED INDIANS IN U. S. IS LESS

Methodists Hear of Conditions of United States Redmen.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Rockford, Ill., Sept. 29.—While the number of full blood Indians in the United States is decreasing, the number of mixed blood Indians is increasing, Dr. Joseph B. Benson of New York, told the clergy and laymen of the Methodist Episcopal church here today. He reported on a survey of American Indians made under the direction of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal church for its Centenary committee.

"With better houses, medical attention and better care for Indian babies, of soap sanitation and the gospel of the number of Indians will continue," Dr. Benson said.

"There are over one-third of a million Indians in the United States and they speak 57 distinct languages," Dr. Benson continued. "There are only five Indians in the state of Delaware, but in the state of Oklahoma there are 120,000."

"In New Mexico there are about 25 Pueblo villages ranging in population from two dozen people to nearly 2000. The Pueblo Indians have been but little influenced either in manner, dress or religion by the coming of the white man's civilization. These Indians still grind their corn in the primitive mills of their ancestors and bake in outdoor ovens. Isleta women have equal rights with men. Woman is head of the house and owner of all its contents. The Spaniard brought these Indians sheep, cattle, goats, wheat, grapes, peaches and apples. There are 3,000 Navajos in or near Arizona, scattered over a reservation of 16 million acres, the largest in America. The women own the flocks of sheep and goats and care for them."

"In southwest Arizona are the Pima and Papago Indians, who claim they have never shed the blood of white men nor have warred against the government."

"Indians in the United States own stock valued at $37,000,000. "Only one-third of the Indians speak English, 75,000 read and write English, 25,000 are entitled to vote, and two-thirds cannot understand the language of the country in which they live."

"Among the Indians there are 430 Protestant missions and 275 Catholics. There are 616 churches with 42,000 Protestants and 61,000 Catholics. Members fully two-thirds of the whole Indian population are little influenced by any church and at least 60,000 are without any church privilege whatever and without either Protestant or Catholic missionaries."

grand jury, according to Hartley Replogle, assistant state's attorney in charge of the inquiry. Abe Attell, former featherweight champion, and Arnold Rothstein, of New York were said by Replogle to have been involved in testimony presented to the grand jury. Attell, it was said, handled the money paid White Sox players for "throwing" the 1919 world's series.

Another action is also indicated by Replogle after the grand jury has heard the testimony of President Johnson and Haydler of the American and National leagues who are still to testify today.

Copies of telegrams sent prior and during the 1919 series by Hal Chase and Bill Burns, former major league players, have been obtained by Haydler for presentation to the grand jury.

Cicotte told the jury that he understood the eight players were to get $20,000 but that they were double crossed by the gamblers and so far as he knew only three, himself, Jackson and Williams, ever received any money for throwing the series. The amounts they were to have received, he said, were:

Eddie Cicotte, pitcher, $10,000.
Claude Williams, pitcher, $10,000.
Charles Risberg, shortstop, $10,000.
"Buck" Weaver third baseman, $5000.

Joe Jackson, left fielder $5000.
"Happy" Felsch, centerfielder, $5000.
"Chick" Gandil, former first baseman, $20,000.

Fred McMullin, utility player, $15,000.
Sa'd He "Lobbed" Ball

With tears in his eyes Cicotte told the grand jury how he had "lobbed" the ball up to the Cincinnati bats in the first game of the series "so that they could read the trade mark on it."

Replogle after having thrown two games, he said he pitched hard to win his third start and won. Either Gandil, whom Cicotte said first arranged the "throwing," or Abe Attell, the go-between of the gamblers got $75,000, which the eight players were to have received.

Cicotte and Jackson were not promised immunity in return for their confessions, Replogle said, but are liable to prosecution the same as the other players named in the eight indictments returned.

GOING IT TOO HARD

Overwork, worry, overeating and lack of exercise and sleep are responsible for much kidney trouble. If your back aches and the kidneys seem weak, rest up and use Doan's Kidney Pills.

O. P. Smith, plasterer and contractor, 977 Centre Ave., Dixon, says: "Kidney trouble has been in my family and I believe I inherited it, as I was more or less afflicted with it for years. Hard work made the trouble worse. I suffered a lot from lame back at times and had a sort of dull, nagging pain across my back, just over my kidneys. My kidneys didn't act regularly and the secretions were sometimes too frequent in passage and then again scanty. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, which I bought at The Public Drug & Book Co. store, and one box soon relieved the backache and regulated my kidneys. Of late, I have had no need of a kidney medicine and I gladly recommend Doan's in return for the benefit they have brought me."

(Copyright, 1920, N. E. A.)

The tomato might be described as the "friendly vegetable." It is indeed the housewife's friend in that it is always ready to help where most needed in an emergency and is easy to handle. The housekeeper always knows just "where to find" it.

There is no vegetable so cheap and easy to can, and after canning there are innumerable ways of serving and changing the plain stewed product.

Canned tomatoes will make soup, fritters, soups, salads, combination dishes, sauces, butters and quite as good catsup and chili sauce as fresh tomatoes.

The quality of the tomato that makes it semi-fruit and vegetable offers a wide scope in using. That tomatoes make a delicious sweet to serve with hot biscuits in place of dessert as well as an appetizing and nourishing soup seems to me a most adequate reason for canning them by the bushel.

Every housewife should put up quantities of her family will eat tomatoes at all knowing that she is storing away for winter the one vegetable that will fill a place on the menu from soup almost to nuts.

The acidity in tomatoes causes many to question the keeping qualities, but the fact is that there is nothing that "keeps" better. Perfectly sterilized glass Mason jars with tested rubbers and tops assure a perfect can of tomatoes whenever opened.

Tomatoes are easier to prepare for canning than most vegetables. Pour boiling water over a pan full of ripe red tomatoes and the skins will slip off like magic. And tomatoes do not stain the canner's hands!

Cut large tomatoes in quarters and put in the preserving kettle. Bring to the boiling point and boil thoroughly. Fill sterilized can absolutely full with the boiling tomatoes. This makes the vacuum necessary for the vegetable to "keep." Screw on the tops and the deed is done. The work must be done quickly, each can filled and sealed with the utmost speed.

To can tomatoes whole, the cold pack method is preferred. Tomatoes are too tender and quick to break when cooked to allow much handling. The only reason for wanting the whole vegetable is for salads, and the strained juice of stewed tomatoes can be used with gelatin to make a molded salad.

To make tomato butter, use three-fourths of a cup of sugar to a cup of canned tomato and juice. Cook, stirring frequently, till thick. In the rush of fall canning the housekeeper sometimes lacks the time required to boil down butters, so why not plan can and make the preserve later in the season?

Red tomatoes are often made into a tomato butter. This is not quite as pretty as the yellow tomato preserve and has a more decided tomato taste. If combined with sweet apples, lemons, raisins, and a spice, a spicy sweet is the result that is good to serve with meats.

RED TOMATO CONSERVE.

4 cups sliced tomatoes.
4 cups chopped apples.
2 lemons.
1 cup seeded raisins.
1 tablespoon raisins.
1 tablespoon cinnamon.
1 tablespoon ginger.
5 cups sugar.

Scald and peel tomatoes. Slice and measure. Pare and chop apples. Measure after chopping. Squeeze juice from lemons and put rinds through food chopper. Put tomatoes, apples, lemon rinds and raisins in preserving kettle with a very little water and cook slowly till apples are tender. Add lemon juice, sugar and spices and cook till thick. Put into jelly glasses and cover with paraffin when cool.

Canned tomatoes eliminate the first steps in making catsup or chili sauce of fresh tomatoes. Here again long hour of cooking and stirring are necessary and time in precious during the canning season.

The best is cheapest—if you have the price.

Country people will find by advertising their dances in the Telegraph they can attract a good attendance. It pays to advertise. Try it.

LEE CENTER

Mrs. Dunton left Wednesday for Vermont for a visit among relatives and friends.

Billie Oakes is quite sick at this writing.

Mrs. L. W. Feik and son Robert, who have been visiting at the A. F. Jeanblanc home, departed Saturday for their home in Sioux City, Ia.

Mrs. Charles Hanover of Geneseo, Ill., motored through Lee Center Sunday and called on Mrs. A. F. Jeanblanc.

Mrs. Elmer Corbin is in the hospital at Dixon for treatment.

Miss Marion Ford and Miss Edith Jeanblanc who are attending school at DeKalb were home over Sunday.

The funeral of Oscar Dewey, aged 81, an old soldier, was held in the Congregational church here last Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Dunton officiating.

E. L. King, a former resident of Lee Center is very sick at his home in Amboy.

Quite a number of Lee Center people attended the fair at Mendota last week and pronounced it a grand success. The exhibits were wonderful, more like a state fair. The fair grounds has been improved by the erection of new buildings and is electrically lighted, with bubbling fountains furnishing an adequate supply of pure drinking water. A comfort station in the center of the grounds brought forth much favorable comment.

Howard Frost, who went to Carthage college is at home on a visit.

PU-YI WANTS TO COME

The former emperor of China, Pu-Yi, 14 years old and throneless, wants to visit the United States. This last "son of heaven," who mounted the Chinese throne when but two years of age, has been a prisoner in Peking since the revolution of 1911.

Pu-Yi can play baseball, and loves comic pictures. He has an English teacher, and would be a regular boy
if they'd let him.

But the president of China hasn't as yet said Pu-Yi may visit America, and according to latest dispatches from China, he isn't likely to consent until after the little ex-emperor picks his bride.

Hsu, Shin-chang "is taking no chances of Pu-Yi seeing girls of other lands before his betrothal. President Hsu has a daughter. It is said in Peking that when Pu-Yi is betrothed to the president's daughter he may be permitted to see America.

FALL FEVER
It was a lovely fall day, the kind of a day you want to be out under the sky and do exactly as you please. The kind of a day that mothers decide to let the mending and the jelly-making and the housecleaning take care of themselves and put on their best hats and go visiting. The kind of a day fathers slam shut the drawers in their office desks and decide to let business and books and dollars take care of themselves. Then they put on their oldest hats and go out hunting or fishing, or golfing, or whatever it is that fathers do.

But that's because they are grown-ups and may do as they please. If they were little 'uns it would be different. Because little 'uns may not do as they please, particularly if it's a school day!

BRINGING UP FATHER.

BY GEORGE McMANUS

Ives came out. "I was in a rage but I never meant to let our difficulty drift so far, my dear. I determined to go home, and hear your story—I can always trust my own little girl. That brute, Ives, ought to be shot, and some one will do it some day!"
"Some man did do it, not long after this was written," was my comment, then I went on with Bob's note.
"Back at the office I found father's lawyer, Joyce, with the news that the government was trailing dad's board.
Naturally, I couldn't attend to our little affair. Father's business required immediate action. You and I would have to wait. But imagine my feelings, dear girl, when I went home for my bag and found you were away! We'll make it up, darling, when I get back."
I kept Bob's letter under my pillow and kissed it at intervals. And I blamed myself, in the way all wives do, for a domestic quarrel.
Perhaps wives blame themselves justly. My mind had been revolving around and around the emotional realm while Bob's mind had been completely absorbed in his business.
I had been living in an erotic world,
a world which was deceptive, to say the least.
"Erotic!" I hated the word.
Ann's thoughts were erotic. And where would she end? Where would she drag the rest of us?
She might be arrested—so ran my excited imagination.
To be Continued.

Confessions of a Bride

(Copyright 1920, by The Newspaper Enterprise Association)

THE BOOK OF ANN.

BOB, IN A LETTER, EXPLAINS
WHY HE LEFT ME IN SUCH HASTE

I wrrenched my thoughts from Ann's affairs. My own required my careful consideration. I reviewed the news Bob had so carefully set down in the letter he had left on my desk. My estrangement from my husband which had been caused by the murdered man's impertinence which had threatened to come to a bitter conclusion was in a way, Daddy Lorimer's fault!

Bob wrote that his father had invested some pocket money, as he calls his "extra" dividends, on the side. He had bought up some of the necessities of life and was holding them for higher prices! Bob considered it a blot on the Lorimer 'scutcheon, although several other millionaires of the utmost respectability were doing the same thing, and calling it clever business.

The game was altogether outside of his father's line, Bob wrote, and it was especially disreputable because his father hadn't the slightest need of the money. Now the government was trailing similar investments and so Bob and the lawyer, Joyce, had gone off to negotiate the sale of the board, at any price, to get rid of it and avoid publicity.
Bob loathed the job, but he had decided to get the thing over with as soon as possible. He could manage, because he had had entire control of his father's affairs since his father's last sickness. But if his dad knew about the government investigation, he would be aroused to an awful fit of wrath and none of us could predict the consequences. If a brain lesion did not prove fatal it might paralyze daddy for the remainder of his life.

"It was this business which kept me away from home last night," wrote my husband. "Of course I might have sent a messenger to tell you, but Jane, honestly, I was so upset by the whole darn mess that I forgot all about you. It was a secret, and half a hundred of dad's business rivals and political enemies would have paid young fortunes to hang the story on him. So I couldn't phone you. Even the telephone booths have ears at such times. Do you get me?"
I more than got his meaning. I realized that I had misconstrued my husband's actions and blamed him bitterly when he was most in need of my sympathy!

Bob is the most democratic of men.
He is for the people by instinct. I knew that he must be utterly disgusted to learn that his father was taking a hand in the great profiteering game.
I knew that he must have been annoyed almost beyond endurance to have to straighten out such a muddle.
His wisdom and patience would be tried to the limit in his endeavor to manage the affair diplomatically; that is, without arousing his father's wrath.
And I, the stupid wife, had misinterpreted my man completely!
"Of course I was furious when I say you with Ives," said Bob, written before the news of the murder of

DISGRACED PLAYERS SUSPECTED OF SELL OUT DURING SEASON

Other White Sox Charge
Them With Loss of 1920 Pennant.

By Associated Press Lensed Wire
Chicago, Sept. 29.—Charges that some of the same players who are accused of "throwing" the world's series to Cincinnati last year, have used their efforts to prevent the White Sox from becoming pennant winners this season, were made today by several members of the Chicago White Sox who have not been mentioned in the grand jury testimony.

One player, who refused to allow his name to be used made the following statement:

"When we started on our last eastern trip we had every reason to believe we would win the pennant. Suddenly Williams and Cicotte seemed to go bad without any reason. Some of us talked it over and agreed it looked like they were 'grooving' the ball."

"Then Jackson, Felsch and Risberg began dumping the ball to the infield every time they came to bat when we had a chance to get runs."

"It may as well be stated that some of us believed ever since the last world's series we were sold by Cicotte and others."

"Well, when the same men we suspected crossing us at that time began to go bad on the eastern trip, we decided there must have been another sell out. However, we never have been able to prove this."

Player Will Act.
"Had we played anything like our regular game we would have come home with the pennant clinched. We all hope the grand jury will look into this end of the affair. If it fails to act we may take some action ourselves. If we can get hold of the players we feel sure did the cheating."

John Collins, veteran first baseman of the White Sox, said, "we are sorry in a way for the fellows who are caught in this jam, but we are glad everything is going to be shown up."

"We suspected some of them in the world's series and we suspected them again because of the way they played in the last eastern trip," said Collins. "Some of them really acted as though they didn't want to win. I have no idea what influenced their actions."

"Red" Faber, veteran pitcher, who carried his club to victory in the 1917 world's series said:

"It looks like we were double-crossed in the world's series last year and in the pennant race this year but we are not through yet. We will go to St. Louis with a ball team on which every man will be trying and we will fight to get into the world's series."

"If we land we will be sure of one thing—we will not have a Judas on the team when we go into the big series."

HAS NO PAIN NOW
What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did for Mrs. Warner.

Onalaska, Wis.—"Every month I had such pains in my back and lower part of stomach I could not lie in bed. I suffered so it seemed as though I would die and I was not regular either. I suffered for a year and was unfit to do my housework, could only wash dishes once in a while. I read an advertisement of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other women and decided to try it. It surely did wonders for me. I have no pains now and I can do my housework without any trouble at all. I will always praise your medicine as I do not believe there is a doctor that can do as much good in female weakness, and you may use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. LESTER E. WARNER, R. 1, Box 69, Onalaska, Wis.

The reason women write such letters to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. and tell their friends how they are helped is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives. Freed from their illness they want to pass the good news along to other suffering women that they also may be relieved.

FORD MOVIE LABORATORY FULL SIZED INDUSTRY

One Late Film Pictures Life of Henry Ford.

While the production of motion pictures by the Ford Motor Company is only a side line, yet the studio and laboratory which produce the "Ford Educational Weekly" are amongst the country's finest and most completely equipped. Everything needed to convert raw film into finished pictures by expert motion picture men may be found there.

From this effectively organized picture-producing plant, one hundred fifty some odd thousand feet of film weekly starts its long journey through the theaters of America, Mexico, Brazil, Chile, Argentina, South Africa, Spain, France, Russia, Scandinavia, Japan, China and Alaska. Each week ten million people see "The Ford Educational Weekly."

It is shown in seven thousand—nearly half—the moving picture theaters in the United States; and has gained for the Ford Motor Company the distinction of having the largest circulation of motion pictures in the world.

A staff of camera men are employed continuously to provide pictures for the laboratory.

One of the most recent films portrays scenes from Henry Ford's life. It shows something of his early life on the farm where he tinkered with machinery when his other work permitted, gives one a glimpse of his early mechanical genius, shows him at work on the first car, and later shows all of the Ford industries in Detroit. The last scene, taken last fall, pictures Mr. and Mrs. Ford riding on their farm near Dearborn, Michigan, in the first Ford car, which, incidentally, is still in very good running condition.

"If I can help anyone by telling them about Tanlac I am happy to do so, for that's the way I learned about this wonderful medicine," said Miss Idella Swing, R. F. D. No. 5 Mason City, Ill.

"My health began to fail six years ago and I became so bad off that the past two or three years have simply been just one continual period of suffering. I had an awful case of indigestion. Nearly everything I ate soured and caused gas to form and my heart would palpitate so bad it frightened me. I was subject to sudden cramping spells and several times they were so severe I thought I was going to die. I had to live entirely on light diets and became so weak I could hardly drag myself around. My nerves were shattered, my sleep was broken and restless. Finally my condition became so bad that my friends spoke of it and advised me to try Tanlac."

"And I am so glad I did for I now know what it means to enjoy good health. My appetite is just splendid and I am free from indigestion. I can now eat anything without any trouble afterwards. My nerves are calm and steady and I get sound, restful sleep at night. I can hardly find enough work around the house to do now, for I seem to have unusual strength and energy."

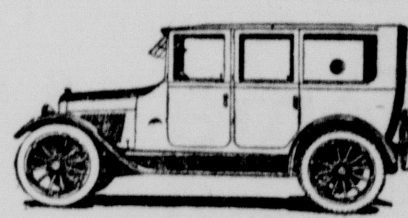

Tanlac is sold in Dixon by the Public Drug & Book Co. and by the leading druggist in every town.

BUSY WINTER AHEAD FOR MEMBERS OF DIXON Y. M. C. A. IN GYMNASIUM

The Physical department activities of the Dixon Y. M. C. A. for the season 1920-1921 will start the week of October 4th—not with the blare of trumpets, a brass band or a Jazz orchestra, but with the next thing to it—and from all indications, inquiries, and interest manifested the coming season promises to warrant a noisy celebration of some kind, and to eclipse all others in the history of the association. Last year the Physical department was the liveliest place in Dixon and plans for the fall and winter activities should again make the Y the center of interest for the live ones of the city. The schedule of gym classes which appears below gives an opportunity for the entire membership to get in on something that is well worth anything from checkers and drop-the-handkerchief to the football style of basketball will be played and should any one desire something outside these bounds we will endeavor to accommodate them. The "old health factory" will sure be busy grinding out and filling orders for the lean and lank, the stout and cumbersome, the light and dainty, the heavy and unwieldy as well as for the ordinary individual.

Volley ball among the business men has proven the game of games and anyone doubting this statement should stroll around in the vicinity of the "Y" when a class is in session, stop, look and listen to the rumpus the "tired business man" kicks up while nimble skipping too and fro over the floor pursuing the elusive sphere. No one is too old for this game. Youngsters of 40 and 70 can play alongside of and hold their own with those of 25 and 30. At 6 o'clock class is scheduled for this season for men who cannot make the 5 o'clock hour and also for those who cannot get enough of the old game in one session. There are numbers of the "fends" who will start at 5 and play right thru till 7 and then call for more. The Volley ball rules this year have a number of changes in them and these changes will tend to eliminate the star performances of a few players, who heretofore have gotten most of the exercise and to give the ordinary player and the beginner more chance to play the ball and to get into the game in real style. Many new faces are expected to be seen on the gym floor when the Volley ballers start cavorting about. The boys as usual will be out in force and all classes of Juniors and Intermediates will jump off at the zero hour with their ranks full, and with pep enough to supply a regiment. Their gym classes will meet at the same hours and days as last year with the exception of one Intermediate class. Their Monday class is switched to Tuesday. A swimming period follows each class session.

Ladies classes will meet at the same hours as at the close of the season last year but their days have been changed. After consulting a number of the fair athletes and taking everything into consideration it was deemed advisable to change their big day from Friday to Monday, so starting October 4th they will have the building from 1:30 to 10 p. m. every Monday. Their other session, Tuesday 1:30 to 3:30, will now be held on Friday, the hours remaining 1:30 to 3:30. The ladies got a late start last year but nevertheless got it the swing of things in big league style and with the change of days to their advantage they should be "knocking 'em cold" in short order. Calisthenics will form a part of all classes as they are the real worth while part of a class session. Because why? Because they build up all the muscles, and not a few at the expense of others. Because, why? Because they take off surplus weight. Because, why? Because they put on weight where weight is needed. Because, why? Because too much weight and too little weight are abnormal and exercise via "Old Man Calisthenics" tends to put a person in a normal condition, which is the happy medium. Jack Spratt and wife, Volley ball, basketball, indoor baseball, etc., are all good, very good in their way, but there is a certain nervous tension while playing these games that robs them of a portion of their value as body builders. Nuf Sed. Medical and physical examinations will be given those who desire them by the medical board. All boys must have the examination before entering a gym class. Further information on examinations and any other subject relating to the physical department, gym classes, etc., can be had by calling up, or on the physical director. The physical department committee under whose supervision the work of the physical department is conducted consists this year of E. B. Raymond, chairman, M. R. Forsythe, Dr. McGraham, H. L. Wheeler and G. Wagner. The physical director who has direct charge of the physical work, everybody knows. Commence fring. The schedule of the physical department is as follows:

Home of Chicago Alderman Bombed

Chicago, Sept. 29.—A black powder bomb early today wrecked the home of Alderman John Powers, threw the alderman and five others out of bed, and did considerable other damage in the neighborhood, but no one was injured. Mr. Powers said he believed the bomb was planted by political enemies. Most of the residents of his ward are Italians. He recently defeated one of their number, Anthony D'Andre as Democratic committeeman.

Indians Have Good Chance to Get Flag

By Associated Press Leased Wire
St. Louis, Sept. 29.—Having a one game lead over Chicago in the fight for the American league flag, Cleveland today had an opportunity to further widen the breach by defeating St. Louis in the final engagement of the series while the White Sox are idle. The Indians have scored three consecutive victories here. By winning four games of the five remaining on the schedule, Cleveland will clinch the pennant, irrespective of the outcome of the series of three games which Chicago starts here Friday to round out the season. Coveleske was Manager Speaker's probable pitching selection today, with Vangilder or Lynch as his opponent.

Clear, Peachy Skin

Awaits Anyone Who

Drinks Hot Water

Says an inside bath, before breakfast helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Sparkling and vivacious—merry, bright, alert—a good, clear skin and a natural, rosy, healthy complexion are assured only by pure blood. If only every man and woman could be induced to adopt the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls, with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing

The Reduced Cost of Tire Mileage for Your Small Car

Do you realize that Goodyear Tires are priced no higher today than in 1910 and that their mileage actually costs less than it did a decade ago?

During this period Goodyear has been able steadily to increase the amount of mileage built into its tires and, consequently, the cost of Goodyear mileage has actually declined.

In no part of the Goodyear line has this decline been more marked than in the present 30 x 3-, 30 x 3½- and 31 x 4-inch sizes of Goodyear Tires, made especially for small cars.

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or other car taking these sizes, go to your nearest Service Station for them—get the unusual value contained in their construction and delivered in their mileage.

30 x 3½ Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread $2350
30 x 3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread $2150
Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost no more than the price you are asked to pay for tubes of less merit—why risk costly casings when such sure protection is available? 30 x 3½ size in waterproof bag $450
